

THE ALUMNI↔NCU CONNECTION

Value the NCU Brand of Education - Nurse of the Year Shared

The Hyacinth Chen School of Nursing at Northern Caribbean University (NCU) donned ninety one students at a capping and dedicatory service held at the main campus gymnasium recently. The sophomore students of class 2018 were reigned under the theme "Embracing the Flame of Care: Sustaining the Glow" to much pomp and pageantry.

Guest Speaker, Nurse of the year 2015/2016, and NCU's alumna Treveen Palmer-Miller encouraged the students to, "take advantage of the wealth of information available, and the diversity that is offered at NCU. Believe me it makes you a more well-rounded individual."

NCU's MEC Graduation in Clarendon 2015

The Government and people of Jamaica are becoming increasingly aware that the most significant way out of poverty is to empower our people as entrepreneurs. Northern Caribbean University (NCU) also bears this burden. The university responds to that need in several ways: one of its significant efforts is managed by the Morris Entrepreneurship Centre (MEC).

NCU's Dominance of Burger King 7K & 5K Run/Walk

Northern Caribbean University (NCU) athletes continue to live out its mantra of the NCU's Media Group of being the Education and Wellness station recently at the 13th staging of the Running Events Burger King 7K and 5K run/walk in Mandeville. The University team captured awards in many categories as the NCU team walked away with the 5K walk where the first four finishers all wore the University colours. Two other categories champions were also declared at the end of the Mandeville hosted event.
